

When foil lines are drawn next to each other they must be kept one grid apart from one another. This must be watched very closely when drawing lines at 45 degree angles.

