

Stubs are lines drawn independently off of a main foil path. An example of a stub line is shown below and how it should be corrected. A stub can be drawn if all else fails in trying to connect the holes correctly or if the stub is very short which would be any line under 36 grids.

