

When lining up the hole pattern under the mylar to begin the drawing of the printed circuit board the starting point is at 006 vertically and 015 on the horizontal axis.

