All foil lines must be kept one grid away from all holes on the board that they are not intended to be connected to.

