All lines on the horizontal layer should be drawn as much as possible from left to right. If vertical lines are drawn on this layer it may cause problems drawing in other foil paths in the future.